During the Time of your Majeſty's Affliction, none of your Subjects were more earneſt and affectionate than the Proteſtant Diſſenters, in Supplications to the God of Heaven and Earth for the ſpeedy and complete Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health; nor can any more truly and ardently rejoice in the favourable Anſwer of Divine Providence to the united Prayers of the People of theſe Kingdoms.

Your Majeſty has experienced the Power and Mercy of God; His Power in wounding and His Mercy in making whole. From the Piety of your Majeſty's Sentiments, we are firmly aſſured that your Majeſty ſtrongly feels your Dependence on the Supreme Governor of the Univerſe, and that to His Goodneſs you devoutly aſcribe the happy and joyful Change which is made in your Situation, and your being reſtored to the Conſolations of your Royal Family, and to the Diſcharge of the Duties belonging to your high and important Station.

Having always been attached to the Principles of the Revolution, and the Succeſſion of the Illuſtrious trious Houſe of Hanover; being deeply ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings, Civil and Religious, which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and entertaining the ſincereſt Reverence for your perſonal Virtues, we unite in our warmeſt Addreſſes to the Throne of Grace, that your Majeſty may long enjoy a Life of Health, Uſefulneſs and Happineſs in this World, and that at length you may be tranſlated to the Realms of complete and endleſs Felicity.

Amongſt the Calamities ariſing from His Majeſty's Illneſs, we felt in the ſtrongeſt Manner the peculiar and pungent Diſtreſs which muſt have affected your Royal Breaſt on the melancholy Occaſion: Our Sympathy and Concern for the Grief which filled your Majeſty's Heart can be equalled only by our Gladneſs for that happy Change, which has lighted up your Majeſty's Countenance to Joy and Felicity, and our Thankſulneſs to Almighty God for ſo great and ſignal a Bleſſiſing.

Being engaged by our profeſſional Character in recommending the Duties of Religion, and finding our ſweeteſt Conſolations in domeſtic Life, we have always contemplated with peculiar Admiration and Pleaſure the beautiful Example of Piety and moral Order, of conjugal and parental Virtue, exhibited in the King and Queen of Great Britain, and have rejoiced that ſuch an Example has been diſplayed in the higheſt of all earthly Stations. It is our fervent Wiſh, that a Pattern ſo amiable and illuſtrious may attract the Imitation of every Rank and Order of Men in the Kingdom.

We offer up our unfeigned Prayers to the King of Kings, that your Majeſty may for many Years be preſerved to diſplay all the excellent Qualities which adorn your Character as a Wife, a Mother, and a Queen; and that you may enjoy every Satisfaction in the Health, long Life, and Felicity of your beloved Huſband and Sovereign, and in the Accompliſhments and Virtues of your Royal Offspring.

YOUR dutiful Congratulations on the preſent happy Occaſion ſo ſtrongly mark your Conviction of the Bleſſings you enjoy under His Majeſty's mild Government, that they give Me the greateſt Satisfaction. I am not the leſs ſenſible of your perſonal Expreſſions to Me.

They were all very graciouſly received, and had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Whitehall, April 7.

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberdeen.

WE, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberdeen, deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Government, embrace the Opportunity of our firſt meeting in Preſbytery, of expreſſing our heartfelt Regret on Account of your Majeſty's late Indiſpoſition; the Removal of which was the Subject of our daily and fervent Prayers; and of congratulating your Majeſty on your happy Recovery, for which Event, from the Moment we heard of it, we have not ceaſed to return unto God the grateful Tribute of our Praiſe.

That we may long enjoy the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Civil and Religious Liberty under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and that your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, a virtuous and loyal People, ſhall ever be the Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberdeen.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by James Hogg, Moderator.

[Tranſmitted by the Rev. Mr. Hogg.]

The humble Addreſs of the County of Surrey,

To the KING.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt ſincere and joyful Congratulations on the happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, ſo precious to your People, and ſo eſſential to the Felicity of all your faithful Subjects.

Loyalty and Affection are ever moſt certainly proved in the Seaſon of Adverſity and Affliction; and the Grief all Ranks of People felt and expreſſed for your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition is the moſt decided Teſtimony of your poſſeſſing Empire, where ſo benevolent a Monarch would moſt wiſh to reign. Ever, Sire, may ſuch be your happy Situation; and may the Almighty, in Mercy to this Nation, by an uninterrupted Series of Health, enable your Majeſty, in Proſperity and Peace, long to reign over a grateful, happy and free People.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Orſlow, Lord Lieutenant; John Creuzé, Eſq; Sheriff; and Sir Joſeph Mawbey, Bart. and the Right Honourable Lord John Ruſſell, Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Treaſurer, Maſters of the Bench, and the reſt of the Society of Lincoln's-inn, humbly offer our ſincere and fervent Congratulations on your Majeſty's Reſtoration to the ineſtimable Bleſſing of Health.

We earneſtly pray, that the ſame watchful Providence which hath protected your Majeſty in the Hour of Sickneſs, may, by the Prolongation of your Majeſty's Reign, vouchſafe the Continuance of a juſt and temperate Adminiſtration of the Laws and Conſtitution of Government to a loyal, grateful and affectionate People.

A. Macdonald, Treaſurer.

[Delivered by Sir Archibald Macdonald, His Majeſty's Attorney General, Treaſurer.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Jerſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey, having learned the joyful News of the Recovery of your Majeſty's Health, offer up our Praiſes and Thanks to Almighty God for this ſignal Inſtance of His Goodneſs; and we devoutly pray, that your Majeſty may continue to enjoy the Bleſſing of uninterrupted Health, and reign long over a happy and an affectionate People.

We approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of unfeigned Love and profound Reverence. Alarmed as we have been at your Majeſty's Danger, our Hearts glow with redoubled Affection at this auſpicious Moment; and we experience all the Satisfaction which the pureſt Loyalty can inſpire.

Our Anceſtors have ſet before us a bright Example of the Duty of Subjects. Their Attachment to their Sovereigns, Kings of England, has ſtood for Ages ſuperior to every Trial. They have maintained an uncorrupted Fidelity in the worſt of Times. And whilſt we are warmed with the ſame Spirit, impreſſed with the ſame Sentiments, we have the additional Motive of Gratitude towards the beſt of Princes for many gracious Favors granted to us, and particularly for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection of this Iſland during the late War, and for thoſe Means of Defence by which we were enabled to repel the Attacks of our Enemies.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Emotions of Joy at your Majeſty's providential Recovery are ſuch in this Country as no Words can ſufficiently expreſs. And if the Inhabitants of ſo ſmall a Part of your Majeſty's Dominions preſume to offer you the Tribute of their Hearts amidſt the univerſal Acclamation, we humbly hope your Majeſty will deign to accept it with Indulgence, from the Conſideration that no other Part of your Majeſty's Kingdoms can exceed the Attachment of your faithful Subjects of Jerſey to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, to your Illuſtrious Family, and to your happy Government.

By Order of the States,

Phil. De Carteret, Greff.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable General Conway, Governor of the Iſland of Jerſey, and J. Dumareſq, Eſq; of St. Peter's.]

We felt, in common with the Nation at large, the deepeſt Anxiety and Diſtreſs during the Continuance of your Majeſty's Illneſs.

We acknowledge, therefore, with the utmoſt Gratitude, the Goodneſs of Divine Providence in reſtoring your Majeſty to the fervent Prayers of your People.

And we ſincerely hope, that your Majeſty will long continue, with uninterrupted Health, to witneſs the Proſperity of your Subjects; for the Enjoyment of which they are ſo greatly indebted to your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

Signed on Behalf and with the unanimous Conſent of a very numerous Meeting,

Euſtace Kentiſh, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Philip Yorke, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall.

Robert Lovell Gwatkin, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Viſcount Mount Edgcombe, Lord Lieutenant, and Sir Wm. Lemon and Sir Wm. Moleſworth, Barts. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Derby.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Derby, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon at this Time, with moſt ſincere though inadequate Expreſſions of unanimous Congratulation.

The Joy which we ſhare with the reſt of our dutiful and loyal fellow Subjects on the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health can only be equalled by our Senſe of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government; and permit us, Sir, to embrace this Opportunity of declaring, that, with our Thanks to Almighty God for the late Interpoſition of His Mercy, we ſhall ever unite our Prayers that He may ſtill be pleaſed to protect your Majeſty in a long and happy Reign.

Peter Pegge Burnell, Sheriff,
Rob. Wilmot, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

[Delivered by the Rt. Hon. Lord G. Cavendiſh and Edward Miller Mundy, Eſq. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled.

Sam. Crompton, Mayor.

[Delivered by the Rt. Hon. Lord George Henry Cavendiſh, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Berks, impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Sentiments of Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Congratulations on your Recovery; and at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty that the Grief and Concern which we felt during your late Indiſpoſition can only be equalled by the unfeigned Joy and Happineſs which we feel upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Health.

Deeply intereſted as we are in every Event which affects Her Majeſty, and the Royal Family, we moſt cordially participated in thoſe Senſations of anxious Solicitude which lately interrupted their domeſtick Comfort and Felicity. On the Return of both, we cannot help feeling and expreſſing the higheſt Satisfaction.
